

About the Cast

Yvette Rodriguez is from Des Moines, likes to play the violin & loves The Vagina Monologues because she has a great sense of humor.

Ashley Schmuecker is a junior in religious studies & anthropology; originally from Cedar Rapids, Iowa. This is her first year in The Vagina Monologue & she loves being Sloss House Groupie.

Megan Savaia is funny, energetic, loves to dance, talk out of her ears, spunky, small, & intelligent. She is a woman.

Mara Spooner is an Iowa State graduate in Anthropology who currently works at Wheatsfield Cooperative, & manages Smiles & Gyros. Participating in The Vagina Monologues for the third time, Mara believes that this group of fabulous ladies helps melt the icy tundra of winter Ames...one impressive woman at a time.

Cathryn Tell is in love with the theatre. Especially theatre that is empowering to women. Anything that doesn't challenge her views or her projection of myself feels safe & at this point in my life I'm ready to live.

Mary Tiedeman is a Senior in Environmental Science and Agronomy, enthusiastic about lots of nerdy things & loves everything vagina.

Kristen Wentworth is a graduate student in Educational Leadership and Policy Studies. She is originally from New Hampshire, lived/worked in Colorado & Pennsylvania before arriving at ISU. This is her third Vagina Monologues performance.

Justine Year is a senior in performing arts & this is her second time doing the The Vagina Monologues.

About the Cast

The 'V' in V-Day stands for Victory, Valentine and Vagina. V-Day is a global movement to end violence against women and girls that raises funds and awareness through benefit productions of Playwright/Founder Eve Ensler's award winning play The Vagina Monologues. In 2008, over 4000 V-Day benefit events took place produced by volunteer activists in the U.S. and around the world, educating millions of people about the reality of violence against women and girls. For more information visit to: <http://www.vday.org>

Profits will be donated to: ACCESS (<http://www.assaultcarecenter.org/>) & V-DAY National Philanthropy: Stop Raping Our Greatest Resource: Power to the Women & Girls of Democratic Republic of Congo
